

THE OLDEST INHABITANT DIED AT 108

Aged Mexican of Peralta Was Found Dead in His Bed Yesterday Morning

BELIEVED NO OTHER IN COUNTY OLDER

For Seven Years Past He Has Been Cared for by the County

Remigio Carriaga, aged 108, was found dead in his bed at Peralta yesterday morning. Coroner George S. Smith says he believed the man at the time of his death was the oldest inhabitant of the county. He was born in Lower California and came to this part of California sixty years ago. R. C. Marquez of Peralta, where Carriaga lived for the last seven years, knew the old man about twelve years. Carriaga, so far as is known, had no relatives in this county. Carriaga was a county charge, and has been cared for by Marquez for seven years. Several years ago the Mexican's right leg was amputated at the knee, the operation being necessary on account of an ulcer. For some time he has been almost blind, and for a year past nearly all his time was spent in bed. He lived in a small room built on to the Marquez house. He was last seen alive Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Yesterday morning F. C. Marquez went to the room to take the old man his breakfast, and found him dead, doubled up in his bed, as was his custom when sleeping. Coroner Smith held an inquest yesterday, the verdict being that death came from natural causes.

BARR CHARGED WITH FORGERY

Man Married Here Last September is Searched for by Officers

Los Angeles detectives armed with a warrant are searching high and low for Frank M. Barr, a former well known real estate dealer of San Diego, who is wanted there on a charge of passing a worthless check for $525 on A. J. Weisenberg, a Los Angeles jeweler, from whom he obtained a diamond set ring. Barr is the man who was married in Santa Ana last September to a Missouri school teacher, both giving Santa Ana as their residence. Following their marriage District Attorney Davis was consulted by the son of Mrs. Madie Atkinson Barr, who was married on the high seas to Barr, with a view of bringing a bigamy charge against Barr in this county. The charge was never brought. Mrs. Barr No. 1 received an annulment of the high seas marriage and Mrs. Barr No. 2 has left Barr. The bad check had the name of Mrs. Barr No. 1 forged to it.

The check, it is alleged was given on a San Diego bank and was pronounced worthless. Barr is now supposed to be on his way to Japan. The purchase of the ring was made in Los Angeles during the holidays and it is said Barr disappeared on New Year's day.

Previous to the middle of December Barr was in San Diego, except for a short period of honeymoon after his marriage to the young woman at Santa Ana. After that Barr left and it is claimed he was seen in San Francisco.

TAFT LEAVES FOR PANAMA

Accompanied by Mrs. Taft Newspaper Men and Engineers

His Mission is to Thoroughly Investigate Conditions of the Canal

CHARLESTON, S. C., Jan. 25.—President-elect and Mrs. Taft, accompanied by the party of seven engineers and seven newspaper correspondents, who will accompany them to Panama, embarked for the cruiser North Carolina at Custom House wharf at 7 o'clock this morning.

The engineers who will accompany Mr. Taft are Arthur P. Davis of the government reclamation service; John R. Freeman of Providence, R. I.; Allen Hazen of New York, James Dix Schuyler of Los Angeles, Frederick K. Stearns of Boston and Isham Randolph and Henry Allen of Chicago.

As stated by Mr. Taft yesterday afternoon, the duty of the engineers will be to go fully over the ground on the isthmus with a view to discovering whether any physical conditions have arisen since the late system was decided upon to make necessary or desirable change to the sea-level system. Several conditions, as to labor, life on the isthmus, etc., will also be observed by the president-elect during the trip.

After his return on Feb. 4, President-elect Taft will fill speaking engagements at Birmingham Cincinnati, Philadelphia and New York. A conference was held yesterday between Taft, Senator Knox and National Chairman Hitchcock in which it was supposed that the cabinet slate was made up.

STATE MIGHT BE BUILDER OF RAIL ROADS

Caminetti Believes Plan Would Solve All Transportation Troubles

STATE WOULD NOT OWN THE ROLLING STOCK

Parental Court Law Likely to Meet Opposition From Ignorance

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 25.—Senator Caminetti today introduced a constitutional amendment giving the state the right to build railways to be maintained for the use of all. The measure is similar to one introduced in the house years ago. It is not a move toward government ownership but on the contrary, expressly provides that the state cannot own the rolling stock.

The state will build trunk lines; will safeguard life and property and insure prompt service by providing a management to control the regulation of the roads which will see that individuals and corporations and other railroads have equal rights and privileges, and equal facilities. Caminetti says the law would solve all the transportation troubles and force common carriers to meet all competition which will be refereed by the state, thus assuring fairness.

JUVENILE COURT LAW WILL MEET OPPOSITION

Much opposition is being encountered to the parental court bill introduced by Hammond of Los Angeles, which proposes to apply throughout the state the provisions of the juvenile court law now so effective in Los Angeles. Opposition arises from ignorance of the benefit and workings of the law.

GIRL NOT SATISFIED WITH A HANDSHAKE

Justice of the Peace Smithwick has married his scores but it remained for a good looking bride from San Bernardino, soon to make her home in Skidoo, to take him completely by surprise. The judge made Miss Isabella Marget of San Bernardino the wife of Charles J. Shackett of Skidoo, Inyo county, and Mrs. Shackett was mighty well pleased with the job. The judge, as is his usual custom, reached out his hand to the bride to congratulate her, but handshaking was too tame for the girl bound for Skidoo. She kissed the judge.

A NEW LOCAL OPTION BILL

Measure to Secure to People Rights Provided for by State Constitution

Supported by Estudillo and Anti-Saloon League—Where Does Melrose Stand?

The Register is in receipt of a letter from Mr. W. E. Perry, formerly of the Register staff, now representing the Anti-Saloon League of Southern California at Sacramento, calling attention to and asking endorsement of a "Local Option Bill" now before the legislature. It is Assembly Bill No. 147 and Senate Bill No. 55. Mr. Perry says, "We do not know where Assemblyman Melrose stands on this bill; it was introduced in the Senate by Senator Estudillo."

The fact that the bill has the support of the Anti-Saloon League strongly commends it, but it really does not confer much larger powers on counties or cities than they now have under the general police powers. The matter of petition and election for the exclusion of saloons is put in clear and definite shape, and is made mandatory on all cities and counties.

It seems quite clear that while this would not prevent any city passing a prohibition ordinance, it makes it possible for all cities and counties where the temperance sentiment is strong to come under the provisions of this general state law with uniform provisions and stronger penalties than are often imposed in case of city or county ordinances. This act, moreover, makes it obligatory on the peace officers of the county to diligently enforce the law.

There is one interesting feature of the law and that is the fact that it makes no provision for table license for hotels. If this law, as introduced, should be passed and any county should vote to come under its provisions, it is probable that every hotel in such county that is now allowed to serve wine and beer with meals would be explicitly denied that privilege and would be liable to prosecution, if it violated the law.

RINCON CASE DISMISSED AFTER 7 YEARS

No More Litigation of Newberry Claim of 30,000 Inches of Water

FAILS TO PROSECUTE CASE IS DROPPED

It Was Virtually Killed When Parts of Complaint Were Struck Out

A water suit which in its day threatened to be dangerous to this valley has been wiped off the docket of the United States Circuit court. The case is that of J. R. Newberry against the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Co. and the Anaheim Union Water Co. It was begun in 1901. Newberry, owning property at Rincon, alleged he had the right to divert 30,000 inches of water at that place, and on that claim he brought the action.

Attorneys Keech and Melrose, representing the valley irrigation companies, killed the action some years ago by getting portions of the complaint struck out, but the case has been on the circuit court docket ever since. It has just been dismissed for lack of prosecution.

WARD ASKING FOR DAMAGES

Claims Von Schrittz's Control and Assessments Were Not Legal

Claims Loss of 276 Shares Damaged Him to Extent of $15,180

Though presumably down and out, J. E. Ward is still on the warpath in the fight made by I. M. Von Schrittz to gain control of the California Celery and Produce Co. Last summer Ward and several other stockholders were squeezed out of the company by assessments, Ward and his friends first having been deposed in the control of the company by asNUNUOL of the company. Now Ward sues the company for $15,180, claiming that the freeze-out damaged him to that extent, and claiming that the company took possession of his stock illegally.

The complaint in the action was filed today, Attorney John E. Daly of Los Angeles, representing Ward. Ward claims that from April 27 to August 27 last he owned 276 shares of stock in the company. On August 27, the company converted the stock to its own use, says the complaint. The company controls acreage in the lowlands near the Santa Ana river. Ward's claims are that control of the company as secured by Von Schrittz was not regular in the manner in which Ward was deposed as an officer.

WRECK STORY IS MARVELOUS

1600 People Saved From Death at Sea by Nature's Miracle

Wireless Calls Aid From Across the Waves of Broad Ocean

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The liner Baltic with 1650 shipwrecked people, as well as its own list of 1930, as its precious freight, dropped anchor last night behind Sandy Hook, bringing in the rescued passengers of the rammed steamer The Republic, of the White Star line, and the Florida, of the Italian line, which collided on the Atlantic, 175 miles west of Ambrose Light at 5:45 Saturday morning.

The news of the thrilling sea drama which, but for wireless telegraphy, would probably have been a sea tragedy, was flashed to shore by the marvelous wireless. Through this same wonderfu agent there gathered at the scene of action out on the broad sea, the ocean liners Furnessia, Lucania, La Laraine, Baltic and New York.

The Republic was so badly injured that her 442 passengers and crew were transferred to the Florida, less badly rammed. At midnight of Saturday these, as well as the 900 Florida passengers, were taken on the Baltic, standing by. Later the Republic, drifting away in the fog, sank. The Florida was conveyed by the Furnessia, whose bow was broken to the bridge.

Two first-cabin passengers of the Republic were killed, Mrs. Eugene Lynch of Boston, who met instant death, and W. J. Mooney, Langdon, S. D., who died after the transfer to the Florida. Four steerage passengers, names unknown, were killed on the Florida.

The Baltic steamed about twelve hour before locating the disabled ships, but was the first to reach them.

TRAINS PASS TWICE OVER A SHAKY BRIDGE

Roadmaster From Rear Car Saw Dangerous Condition of Structure

BLOCKED IT UP AND TRIED AGAIN

Second Time Showed Six Inch Space Above the Piles Shoved Down

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Jan. 25.—The rains of last week put the Santa Fe bridge across the San Juan creek in a shaky condition, and that there was not a train wreck was as much luck as anything else. The creek was higher than it has been in four or five years, six inches of rain in the mountains sending down quite a flood. As the Santa Fe northbound train passed over the bridge last Friday, Roadmaster Hall stood on the rear platform. Just as the rear car got off the bridge the roadmaster saw the bridge sink down several inches. At San Juan Capistrano the roadmaster got a gang of men to work on the bridge, and it was blocked up and the south-bound train went over it. This proved a dangerous experiment, though it was thought the blocking had been done to make it safe. Some of the piles were shoved down so that when the train had passed there was a space of six inches between the portion of the bridge bearing the ties and rails and the top of the piles. A force of men were put on and worked until yesterday getting the bridge into shape. It is now in better fix than it has been for several years.

The Patient Was Improving The following was told of the patient of a well-known New York physician:

The patient, an elderly gentleman, became quite ill while the doctor was absent upon a vacation, the indisposition being the result of too frequent potations. A female nurse was at once engaged to care for him in his hotel.

A lady, residing in the same hotel, became aware of his illness, and interested herself to the extent of one morning inquiring concerning his condition of the chambermaid.

"Shure, ma'am," replied Maggie, "an I think he do be getting along very well. The nurse was sittin' on his lap this mornin'!"

A RIFLE BALL THROUGH FOOT

Firearm Was Accidentally Discharged While Girl Was Cleaning It

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Jan. 25.—Mrs. M. E. Thomas, proprietor of a local restaurant, is suffering from a wound caused by a 22-calibre rifle ball passing through one of her feet. Her daughter, a girl about 16 years of age, was cleaning a rifle when the firearm was accidentally discharged, and the bullet went through the fleshy part of Mrs. Thomas' foot.

SHOULD BILL COME UP EFFORT TO SECURE AN APPROPRIATION FOR HARBOR WILL BE MADE

Should a river and harbors bill be presented to congress during the present session, an effort will be made to secure an appropriation to be used in the preliminary work of making Newport Bay into a harbor. The machinery looking to that end has been set in motion by Clyde Bishop, president of the Newport Harbor Association. Bishop has received word from Congressman Smith saying that he had hopes that a rivers and harbors bill would be introduced. The Chamber of Commerce of Newport Beach has recently received a telegram from United States Senator Flint saying that he does not expect to see the bill come up at this session.

The harbor association committee on legislation and appropriations of which A. H. Stutsman of Tustin is chairman and H. C. Head and R. Y. Williams of Santa Ana members held a meeting last week in Bishop's office, and steps were taken with the view of securing the passage at the state legislature of bills memorializing congress looking to securing national aid in the development of the wonderful resources of the Orange county body of water.

DOES NOT DENY THE BODY SAYS W. E. BROWN

Editor Register:—In your issue of January 20th appears a report of Rev. C. P. Dorland's talk in which he declared, "Christian Science denies the body." Now Christian Science teaches nothing of the kind, and it is to be regretted that those who are inclined to criticize this science do not acquaint themselves with their subject.

Christian Science recognizes that man has a body, and teaches him how to make it harmonize by right thinking and living. All that is in Christian Science is contained in the teachings of Jesus, consequently there is nothing abnormal or illogical in its precepts.

Sincerely yours,
WILLIAM E. BROWN.

We do not hesitate to say that we regard our offer this year to be the most extraordinary ever offered by any newspaper in this vicinity. J. D. EHLEN PASSES AWAY

One of Best Known of German Residents Died at Orange Saturday

John Diedrich Ehlen, father of P. W. Ehlen of Orange, passed away at the home of his son, at 11:30 Saturday evening, Jan. 23, 1909.

Mr. Ehlen had never been sick a day in his life up to last year. Since then he has not been as well as usual, and probably suffered a first stroke of paralysis about ten months ago, when he fell while about his daily duties. He recovered, however, in a few hours, and nothing serious was supposed to have been the trouble at the time.

On Tuesday of last week, while at dinner, he was seized by the second stroke which paralyzed all of one side and his mouth, so that he was unable to take nourishment since, and was confined to his bed until death released him.

Mr. Ehlen was born in Hanover, Germany, on Nov. 7, 1824 making him, at the time of his demise nearly 83 years of age. He was early confirmed in the Lutheran church and has always led an exemplary Christian life. In 1851 he was married to Miss E. Rathjen and continued to live in Hanover, where all their children were born. Four sons and one daughter lived to manhood and womanhood, of which only two, with his wife, still survive, the Rev. J. D. Ehlen, of Scotland, South Dakota, and P. W. Ehlen, of the firm of Ehlen & Grote of Orange. Mr. and Mrs. Ehlen came to Illinois in the spring of '88, and to Orange two years later, where they have since made their home with their son. In 1901 they celebrated their golden wedding at their son's home, and all the German society for miles around came as guests and to offer their congratulations.

The sympathy of her friends is with the sorrowing wife who was his companion through a long life which brought its abundant share of both the joys and sorrows of this world, and with his surviving son.

Funeral services will be held at the German church at 2 p. m. Tuesday, preceded by a short service at the house.

Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to insist upon such knowledge. So he publishes, broadcast and on each bottle wrapper, what his medicines are made of and verifies it under seal. This he feels he can well afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, oftentimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nerve and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities, to Doctor Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

Sophomore Party

The O. U. H. S. Sophomores had a party on Saturday evening at the F. D. Collins ranch. About twenty-five were in attendance and had the fun of going and coming in a hay wagon. The ride both ways formed one of the good parts of the evening.

Miss Isabella entertained the company in a particularly pleasing manner, making them all feel at home at once. Some of the young people came in fancy dress, Guy Nichols probably being the funniest in his bandannas. Many games were played, including that old fashioned one, Virginia Reel. Delicious refreshments of cocoa and cake were served.

Entertained Club

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Huff entertained the Orange Mandolin Club Friday evening. Needless to say a jolly good time resulted.

Meets This Evening

The postponed meeting of the Epworth League will be held this evening at the home of Leah Fernald, on South Olive street.

The Fields o' Ballyclare

I've known the Spring in England—And, O! 'tis pleasant there When all the buds are breaking And all the land is fair! But all the time the heart of me, The better, sweeter part of me, Was sobbin' for the robin In the fields o' Ballyclare!

I've known the Spring in England—And, O! 'tis England's fair! With Springtime in her beauty, A queen beyond compare! But all the while the soul of me, Beyond the poor control of me, Was sighin' to be flyin' To the fields o' Ballyclare!

I've known the Spring in England—And now I know it here; This many a month I've longed for The openin' of the year. But, ah! the Irish mind o' me (I hope 'tis not unkind of me) Is turnin' back with yearnin' To the fields o' Ballyclare! Dennis A. McCarthy.

FOR PLEASURE AND PROFIT

Comparisons are said to be odious. But they are only odious when made in an odious spirit. It hurts those who love Santa Ana to see her fall to live up to her opportunities, and this editorial is inspired by a feeling of pride and hope and faith in the ultimate City Beautiful, the capital of the "biggest little county on earth."

Take a drive around town in the morning, or a spin in your auto or on your bicycle, and you will be a "good roads" (which means good streets) convert.

Saturday afternoon the writer drove for two hours, in all directions, in Pasadena and its environs and didn't see enough mud or slush to soften the frogs of his horse's feet. Everywhere, in all directions, continuous hard, smooth, clean streets. That is ONE REASON why lots bring three and four and even five and ten times as much in Pasadena as they do in Santa Ana. That is ONE REASON why there are now in course of construction in Pasadena and its environs over five hundred new houses. We counted, Saturday, within a radius of three blocks (say nine blocks of frontage) fifteen new houses either in course of construction or completed within the past three months. And so it is in all parts of the city not already fully built up.

Of course general conditions in Pasadena are different from those in Santa Ana, and we do not make the comparison in any spirit of disloyalty or carping criticism. Rather do we speak with a feeling of jealousy for our own beautiful little city. Its climate is far superior at all times of year to that of Pasadena; and with its substantial agricultural backing and high moral standards, it needs but a little more enterprise and public spirit to place it in the very front rank of residence cities.

Better streets is our first and greatest need. And in so far as we fail to provide them do we waste our opportunities for pleasure and profit.

TO MEXICO THEY GO

The lower house at Sacramento has passed the Hughes anti-racetrack gambling bill by an almost unanimous vote. The gamblers are still scrapping in the Senate, but are making a losing fight. The early passage of the bill by the upper house (probably today), is practically assured. It may be done with an ill grace and with an attempt to saddle it with a frustrating amendment but there is small chance for such a move to succeed.

The backers of the bill are wide awake and have announced their intention to make no compromise. Governor Gillette has promised to sign the measure, and there is but little doubt that it will become a law.

So well satisfied are the racing men of this that they have opened negotiations with the Mexican government with the view of obtaining a foothold in that country.

This is as it should be. They will there meet many of the defaulters and other fugitives from justice who owe their presence in that Republic to race track gambling. It will be a case of renewing old acquaintance. Just how happy the meeting will be must be left to conjecture, but no doubt many reminiscences will be brought to mind. There will necessarily be that fellow feeling that must exist between all exiles. But be that as it may there is a certain fitness in such a situation that commands itself to our sense of propriety.

More than this, the Mexicans are inveterate gamblers themselves, and can turn a trick or two as occasion demands, and the racing sharks will not have it all their own way.

And then there is an extensive official class that must always be settled with by any who attempt to do business there. According to the reports of our mining men who have tackled Mexican "propositions," this class is not only numerous, but its demands are gauged only by the ability of their victims to pay.

THE SWAT JUSTIFIABLE

The judicial bench has at least one champion of the "unwritten law," and he hails from Long Beach. Not, however, to the extent of taking life, but of giving the party who calls you a liar a healthy swat in the mouth.

One citizen of Long Beach characterized another citizen in plain Anglo-Saxon as being a fit subject for Teddy's Ananias Club.

ors bill be presented to congress effort will be made to secure the preliminary work of making the machine. The machine, it is said, was remitted the fine, probably on the ground that the word spoken was equivalent to an assault, and that the answering lick was in self defense, which in some states is the written law.

In this matter the Long Beach judge has set a precedent which on the whole is a good one, though subject to abuse. If followed it will to some extent reduce the volume of careless talk and thereby save trouble. In cases of strained relations between neighbors, "English as she is spoke," by the hasty and inconsiderate will be of a more pacific nature, especially if the "party of the second part" is a competent puncher.

At any rate the calling of vile names is not at all edifying, and ought to be discouraged in some efficient way.

Anaheim Plain Dealer: More strength to the arm of Assemblyman Melrose in his effort to repeal the law making the bay at Newport Beach a state reservation for the alleged preservation of game birds. It is really, as the law now stands, a state reservation in the interest of a gun club. The bay should be made accessible to every visitor to the beach, whether for boating, hunting or fishing purposes, from shore to shore, from beach to beach, regardless of the wishes of Land Barons or Gun Clubs.

"To be able to eat 'possum three times a day ought to be a sufficient test of a man's qualifications for any job that requires a good digestion and power of endurance," says the Council Bluffs Nonpareil.

The Sioux City Journal anticipates that when President Roosevelt hears the African lions roaring it will afford a pleasant reminder of home and congress.

Mrs. Belle Case La Follette, editor of the home department of the senator's new paper, advises, a large, old-fashioned yawn as a cure for irritation.

AMUSEMENTS

Arizona

"Arizona" which will appear at the Grand on Jan. 25, had made a career of uninterrupted success in almost every large city of the east. It has played in New York at the Herald Square Theatre and the Academy of music for over 150 consecutive nights, and each and all of the critics have universally agreed that it has achieved a distinction of being the only American drama by an American author which has ever reached this remarkable record in theatrical history. Mr. Thomas, has more than any other writer, laid the foundation and lower courses of the American drama which will one day develop into a most imposing institution. "Arizona" as the name implies, is a play which has its scenes, characters and incidents located in the far west. The people of the play comprise the sturdy ranchmen and cowboys, the brisk, alert women of the pioneer generation and their dainty, graceful yet strong and self-reliant daughters, types of the American girl over which the whole world has come to wonder and admire, officers and soldiers, fair samples of the heterogeneous community which Mr. Thomas has chosen to utilize in the way of literary material. The piece is as full of bright color contrasts as the changing combination of a kaleidoscope. It fairly contrasts as the fresh, vigorous active life of the young West.

The Wolf

Eugene Walter, the young playwright who suddenly leaped into fame

tual of theatergoers really like melodrama, they want it disguised under another name. Walter made New Yorkers admit that they like melodrama under any name, and that "The Wolf" is one of the most worthy of melodramas. It will come to the Grand Jan. 25.

The Only Friends

In spring when things are dreamy-like, and summer when they're bright,
'Most everything's a friend of mine that doesn't sting or bite;
A hollyhock er medder lark er jist a ellum tree,
Er enything that grows er blooms kin be a friend t' me;
But law, law, law,
When the wind's a-blowin' raw,
An' the chill of 't November seems t' somehow gee and haw,
Then I'm mighty free t' tell y' that a' pine er maple knot, last year through the instantaneous success of two of his plays produced in quick succession, won the New York critics and public by his audacity as well as his genius as a playwright. Audacity is the right word, for Mr. Walter had the courage to come right out and call his second great play, "The Wolf," a melodrama. That is just what it is, and so are many of the greatest dramatic successes of recent years, though they are not generally so called by their sponsors, for while the more intel-

Social and Personal

Angus McLeod, who has charge of the landscape gardening at Hewes Hill, has been at his home on Spurgeon street since last Wednesday evening, as work in his line was at a standstill owing to the heavy rains. He returned this morning.

Word received from Mr. J. A. Han-key who is at Thermal for the improvement of his health, indicates that he is much better. His cough is still obstinate but otherwise the improvement is marked.

G. P. Hill took his daughters, Misses Nellie and Lucy, on a trip to Mount Lowe today that they might enjoy at close range the beauty and joy of genuine snow.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Bristol and the baby were expected down from Whittier today to spend a week or so with their relatives. Mr. Bristol's eyes have been troubling him and he has had to take a rest from his work.

Miss Anna McFadden returned to Throop Institute this afternoon after a visit at home since last Thursday. At that time she came down with her mother, who had been visiting her for almost three weeks at Pasadena.

Oceanside's Report

The girls' basket ball team of the Oceanside Union High School went to Santa Ana and Orange, Tuesday morning to join battle with the teams of the high schools at those places.

The game with Santa Ana was played Tuesday afternoon and resulted in a victory for the husky maidens of the celery district, the score being 19 to 10. The Santa Ana team is much heavier than their opponents and has them somewhat at a disadvantage on that account, having taken both games played with Oceanside.

At Orange the local team had better success and annexed the game by the comfortable score of 26 to 19. Orange and Oceanside have each taken a game and it is now proposed to play off the tie, though the date for the final game of the series has not yet been set.

The game here last Saturday with Orange was a close and well played contest until the last of the last half when the visitors succeeded in pulling out by a margin of three, the score being 27 to 30.

The Oceanside team which played in the two games of this week was composed as follows. Forwards, Evaline Coutts, Ramona Rieker; Centers, Arlie Love, Marguerite Brannen, Sibyl Spencer; Guards, Sibyl Sparks, Julia Love. The substitutes were Gladys Coutts, Julia Love. Among those who attended the game from here were Miss O'Connell, Mrs. Q. S. Sparks, Mrs. F. L. Martin, Misses Lucile Griffin, Rita Libby and Enice Everett. Prof. Sheldon was referee.—Oceanside Blade.

Visited the Carters

A jolly party of Elks went up to Corona yesterday to help Harry Carter remember that he had a birthday. He had forgotten it, but his wife hadn't. She had arranged the delightful surprise that the affair proved to be, having sent the invitation some time last week for his Elk friends to be on hand yesterday.

Under the impression that he was to meet his sister-in-law from Anaheim, Mr. Carter went merrily down to the forenoon train, and as the Santa Ana Elks got off and took possession of him, he was utterly amazed. True to his mission, however, he insisted on returning to the train, after they had hustled him toward home, to meet that sister-in-law. Finally he was convinced that the boys were the "near and dear" ones he was to have met.

A beautifully decorated house and a bountiful dinner was awaiting the party as they were greeted by Mrs. Carter at the home. Of course a delightful time followed, and the pleasure of the day was made more complete by a drive over the beautiful country surrounding Corona.

The Elks who were fortunate enough to be the Carters' guests were Messrs. Fred Ross, W. H. McClain, Hugh Lowe, O. K. Forgy, A. W. Rutan, W. F. Menton, Chas. Claytor and C. T. Johnson. They found that the Carters are not only most pleasantly situated as regards a home, but that in a business way Mr. Carter has "struck it rich." He is about to move into larger quarters with his clothing business, and establish a shoe store in his present location.

Albree-Rice

One of the most beautiful weddings of the season was that of yesterday at the Tustin home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Rice, when they gave their daughter, Miss Candace E. Rice, into the life-long keeping of the man of her choice, Mr. Harry W. Albree of Berkeley.

Lovely flowers lent their charm to the event, and harmonized with the radiant beauty of the bride, who, gowned in white chiffon taffeta, presented a charming picture. Miss Mary E. Rice attended her sister, and Miss Marie Gregg, in dainty white, was the flower girl, bearing the wedding ring in the heart of a sweet white rose. "Oh Promise Me," that sweet and significant love song that is so fitting for the marriage day, was beautifully sung by Miss Rose Rice before the ceremony, and "Be-

A PLEASED AND SURPRISED RANCHER

The Six Sixty-seven Was "Like Getting Money From Home."

Saturday morning a rancher from west of town, accompanied by his wife, came to VANDERMAST & SON'S store for a suit.

He asked to see the best twenty dollar suit in our store. After looking and trying on various coats they selected a hand-tailored Hirsch-Wick-wire dark gray suit and handed us a twenty dollar bill in payment.

The look of astonishment and satisfaction on their faces when we handed them back six dollars and sixty-seven cents was worth seeing. You see they did not know we were giving one-third off on those suits and that six sixty-seven was "like getting money from home."

cause" was sung immediately after. Miss Mary Ingham played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

A light collation was served after congratulations, and was followed by the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Albree for their home in Berkeley, where Mr. Albree is employed with the Southern Pacific Railway Co.

Some sixty guests were present at the wedding, which took place at 2 o'clock. Many of those present were from Berkeley, Los Angeles, Long Beach and Orange. Mrs. Albree had many friends in both Long Beach and Orange, where she had taught. She was well loved here and will be missed by many who have known her through her girlhood years in Santa Ana. But their good wishes for a happy life in her new home and for the happiness of both will follow her and the man to whom she has pledged her wedding vows.

The funeral service of Frances S. L. Skinner was held yesterday afternoon, with Rev. J. A. Stevenson preaching the sermon. The pallbearers were Messrs. Mac Robbins, Robert Blee, H. J. Forgy, Chester Lamme.

A man may go through life on a bluff—if he walks.

High living is the limit of many a man's lofty ideals.

It doesn't take a blunt person long to come to the point.

Most of the free advice we get is worth just about that much.

It's enough to make a woman frown if her husband smiles too often.

And it sometimes happens that one can judge by appearances. Many a woman seems straight-laced because she is laced that way.

From the Sacramento Bee: A wave of silence will pass over the land that gave Abraham Lincoln birth, on February 12th, the day he was born one hundred years ago. Starting at the farthest eastern point the whirl of wheels will come to a standstill at the stroke of 12 o'clock and remain motionless for five minutes. And as the hour of noon in its westward course crosses over the border line into each division of time the tumult of city life will cease and the peace of Arcadia will settle over it all.

The hush of the sacred place will fall upon the land and men will think only of him that saved his country and emancipated mankind.

The suggestion from the Bee that Sacramento join its silent prayers with all of the other cities of the country is approved by all the heads of the city's activities. Five minutes seems little enough to devote to a tribute to the memory of the man who gave his life for his country and all who have been approached on the subject give their unqualified consent to the idea.

All the National railroads have agreed to bring their trains to a standstill when the noon hour comes. So will they stop away out here, on the western rim of the Pacific. Railroad traffic contributes most of the discordant notes in a city's music and when it ceases there is a great stillness. So it will be in Sacramento. It will not be unlike the great strike of '94, when an unnatural quiet pervaded the city, following the drawing of the fires in the engines.

If the great steam roads can afford to stop for full five minutes the electric roads of the city can do the same—and they will. Superintendent Charles W. McMillip has promised that much for the street railroad system and there is no doubt that the Northern Electric will acquiesce, too.

No business that will not suffer any material loss will refuse to close the throttle or throw the switch on Lincoln's centenary. Even the garage owners have promised to join in it, and all the drivers of machines sent out from their places will be admonished to remember the noon cessation and to keep it holy.

INFORMATION ON OIL FIELDS GIVEN

Valuable Work in California By United States Geologists

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 25.—Within the last year and a half four bulletins, descriptive of five of the California oil districts, have been issued by the United States Geological Survey. Work has been continuous in these fields, including that of the past summer, which is described in this newspaper report. The bulletins above mentioned are Bulletin No. 309, the Santa Clara Valley, Puente Hills, and Los Angeles oil districts, Southern California, by George H. Eldridge and Ralph Arnold; Bulletin No. 317, Preliminary Report on the Santa Maria oil district, Santa Barbara county, California, by Ralph Arnold and Robert Anderson; Bulletin No. 321, Geology and Oil Resources of the Summerland District, Santa Barbara county, by Ralph Arnold, and Bulletin No. 322, Geology and Oil Resources of the Santa Maria District, Santa Barbara county, California, by Ralph Arnold and Robert Anderson.

Scope of the Reports
These reports are issued in octavo form with paper cover; the text is devoted to more or less detailed description of the geology of the areas under discussion, especially as it relates to the occurrence of the petroleum; descriptive details of the productive areas, such as lists of the oil companies operating, number of wells owned by each, the thickness of the various sands, depth of the wells, quality and quantity of the oil produced, and other useful data, including chemical analysis of the oils made by the Survey, and conclusions by the oil geologists concerning the areas in which the indications appear for further development. Supplementing the text are geologic and land line maps of the districts, and, where the data have warranted it, maps showing the underground geology by means of contours; photographs illustrating certain striking features of the geology or development; and, in Bulletins 309, 321 and 322, plates illustrating the fossils characteristic of the various formations encountered in the region. By means of these fossils it is possible to identify the formations in adjacent regions where the geology has not been mapped.

Topographic Mapping in Connection With the Oil Work
During the summer of 1907 the United States Geological Survey undertook the topographic mapping of the southwestern side of the San Joaquin Valley from the Coalinga District, in Fresno county, south to the Sunset district in Kern county. This work was under the general direction of R. B. Marshall, geographer, and parties in charge of E. P. Davis, George Davis, R. M. La Follette, J. E. Blackburn and J. W. Miller, were engaged in the work, which was completed in the early part of the present year. The map will be issued in two sections, one covering the territory from Coalinga to Dudley, Kings county, and the other embracing the remainder of the region south to the Sunset district. A few photolithographic advance sheets of both sections have been distributed at advantageous points, such as the postoffices and offices of the larger oil companies and ranches throughout the district, where they may be consulted by the public. On these maps the position and shape of the hills and valleys are shown by contour lines, each of which represents a certain elevation above sea level, and the streams, roads, houses, and section and county lines are shown by conventional signs. The contour interval is 100 feet and the scale of the map is approximately two miles to the inch.

Topographic mapping similar to that done in the region from Coalinga to Sunset is now being carried northward from Coalinga to connect with the areas shown on maps already issued covering the vicinity of San Francisco Bay. This new map will probably form the basis for geologic work similar in character to that done in the Coalinga-Sunset territory.

Geological Work in the Region From Coalinga to Dudley

Simultaneous with the topographic mapping of the region from Coalinga southward to Dudley, geological mapping and investigations of the oil resources of the same area were carried on in the summer of 1907, by Ralph Arnold and Robert Anderson. The results of their work have been embodied in two reports on the district. One entitled "A Preliminary Report on the Geology and Oil Resources of the Coalinga District, Fresno and Kings Counties, California," has been issued as Bulletin No. 357. It contains a condensed account of the geology and oil resources and is accompanied by black and white maps, one showing the surface geology of the whole region and the other the underground geology of the proved territory of the Coalinga field. A more extended account of the geology, illustrated by engraved maps, sections, photographs and plates of characteristic fossils, and accompanied by a table of over fifty analyses of the oils by Irving C. Allen, of the Geological Survey, will be issued later, also as a bulletin for free distribution. The work of Messrs. Arnold and Anderson has also been made the basis for the classification of the public lands in the Coalinga district as mineral or non-mineral, reported to the general land office.

Geological Work in the Region From Dudley South to Sunset District

During the summer of 1908 a United States Geological Survey party, consisting of Ralph Arnold and H. R. Johnson, carried geologic investigations southward from Dudley to the Sunset oil district, the territory covered embracing the Devil's Den, Bitterwater, Temblor, McKittrick, Midway, Sunset, and Carrizo Plain districts. Reports similar to those relating to the Coalinga district will be prepared for this new region. The preliminary bulletin is expected to be ready for distribution by next spring.

How to Obtain the Reports of the Federal Survey

Copies of Bulletins 321 and 357, and a list of the publications of the Survey may be obtained free by addressing a request to the Director, U. S. Geological Survey, Washington, D. C. Bulletins Nos. 309, 317 and 322 are now out of stock for free distribution, but may be obtained from the Superintendent of Public Documents, Washington, D. C., for 80c, 15c, and 50c, respectively. Persons desiring copies of reports not yet issued will on request be placed on the mailing list for the Bulletins.

The Cheapness of Life

Boston Post: During the year of 1908 labor in the United States lost nearly 35,000 lives in the course of employment. There were also about 2,000,000 accidents. Most industries involve risks, some greater than others. The accident rate of electricians is excessive. That of coal miners is 3.10 per 1000 in the United States to 1.29 per 1000 in the United Kingdom. This proportion holds among the railroad employees. We lost 250 per 1000 to Germany's .98 per 1000. In other words, we slaughtered on the average 915 more coal miners than England, and 1735 more railroad employees than Germany.

Two conditions account for this excessive death rate that runs through all our departments of labor. First, the reckless indifference and carelessness, united with an inherent dislike to obedience, that characterize our American workmen. Second, the unwillingness of employers to install accident-saving devices, and to compel military obedience to preventive orders.

Germany has a permanent exposition of accident-saving devices which has been productive of great benefit to life. This feature England is copying.

Santa Ana 4, Salt Lakes 2. Br-z, Gee! but wasn't it cold at yesterday's game? In consequence the fans were in an uproar all the time. They had to do this to keep warm. The players were so cold they could hardly hold the sphere, but it did not take the batting eye away from the Yellow Sox, for they got Salt Lakes' premier pitcher for eight hits and five runs in the first five innings, after which he was replaced by Reiger, who held the heavy hitting celery pickers to two hits and no runs.

The cold weather did not seem to bother Walter Johnson, the Yellow Sox flinger. He held the Mormons down to five scattered hits and sent nine of them to the bench by the fan-out route. At times the "little fellow," as Meats calls him, would steam them over so fast that the boys with the salty name could not possibly see 'em.

Three Times

In the first inning there was nothing stirring for either side, but in the second the locals went after Mormon Hall and scored three times off his delivery, and it all happened thus: Meats, the first man up for the home team, slammed the sphere for a safety. Donovan was out, bunting the third strike. Johnson came up and took three swipes at good ones but failed to connect. Robinson got his first hit of the day. It was a single that went to right field. Meats scoring on the drive. Brown drew a pass on four wide ones, Henline kept up the good work and came in with a timely double to right center that scored both Brown and Robinson. That was all of the sport for this inning.

Hall Removed

In the fifth inning the locals went after Hall and secured three more nice hits which meant the removal of Mr. Hall from the mound and Reiger put in his stead. Henline gave an exhibition of sprinting by beating one out to the initial sack. La Longe singled, Henline going to second. Altizer beat out a bunt, which filled the bases. Meats hit one to McCormick, who caught Henline at home, and Seares, in an attempt to catch Meats, made a wild peg to Reiger which allowed La Longe to cross the rubber with the fourth run for the locals.

Mormons Score Twice
The Mormons scored twice. Reiger was safe on La Longe's error, went to second on Donovan's wild heave to first, and McCormick stung the ball for a safety, which scored Reiger and Martinke. That was all. The dope sheet:

Frozen Joits for the Fans

It was certainly a cold day for the players. It was with difficulty that a player could freeze onto a ball. Henline stung the horsehide safely three times. Meats received a foul tip on the knee in the eighth. La Longe, Henline and Robinson were credited with seven of the ten hits. Next Sunday the team journeys to San Diego.

WHY IT SUCCEEDS

Because It's for One Thing Only and Santa Ana People Appreciate This

—Nothing can be good for everything. Doing one thing well brings success. Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only. They cure sick kidneys. They cure backache, every kidney ill. Here is Santa Ana evidence to prove it.

F. M. Gilbert, of 1067 West Third St., Santa Ana, Cal., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have proven a very satisfactory remedy in my case as the use of less than one box absolutely cured me of pain in my back, especially over the left kidney, and I have had no recurrence of the trouble since. During the spring and fall for several years I was subject to attacks of kidney complaint and at these times the secretions from the kidneys were of a very high color. As before said, Doan's Kidney Pills procured from Tubbs & Co.'s drug store, quickly banished the pain and restored the kidney secretions to a normal condition. I believe my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills warrants me in endorsing them as a genuine kidney remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

WON DEBATE, ALSO GLORY

Miss Winifred Roberts and Howard Hankey Victors
at Downey

Won First and Second Place;
Miss Roberts Star of the Evening

Santa Ana High is again in line for the Southern California academic championship in debate, as, by winning from Downey High School on Saturday evening with the overwhelming score of 203 1-3 to 172, the local school more than made up for their defeat by Covina in the last debate.

The High School representatives who won credit for themselves and their school in Saturday night's contest were Miss Winifred Roberts and Mr. Howard Hankey, who debated the affirmative of the question, "Resolved that women should be given all political rights and privileges." The local speakers covered themselves with glory, winning both first and second place, as well as winning the debate.

The debate was held in the Los Nietos Valley High School auditorium, and quite a crowd of enthusiastic rooters were present. The Downey contingent showed excellent school spirit. Some interesting cartoons were exhibited on a moving chart representing the "Doomed" Santa Ana orators.

Mr. Hankey was the first speaker of the evening, and gave a splendid talk, winning a creditable mark for his diction. Miss Pierson of Downey, followed on the negative, with an oration taken principally from the Old Testament, proving that women were not created equal with men in the business world.

The second speaker on the affirmative, and the star of the evening, was Miss Roberts. She won first place, receiving a mark of 100 points from all three judges. This was Miss Roberts' first debate and she deserves much credit for her splendid work.

Miss Green of Downey, concluded the argument for the negative with a speech that was strong, but which edged too close to sarcasm, making the Santa Ana speakers responsible for statements which they really had not made.

Mr. Hankey summed up the argument for the affirmative in a short, forceful rebuttal.

The Santa Ana debaters were accompanied by Miss Taylor and Mr. Tucker of the High School faculty. The party remained in Downey over night. The judges were Mr. Monroe of Whittier, Mr. Snyder and Mr. Parks, both of Hollywood.

IS THE SMALLEST OF POST OFFICES

San Diego County Maintains Very Smallest in the World

In an almost unknown canyon of the wild "back country" of San Diego county, California, stands the smallest postoffice in the world. It resembles an undersized sentry-box or an overgrown dog-kennel, and measures 32 by 43 inches, with a height of seven feet.

The postmaster who carries on Uncle Sam's business in this unique office is compelled to use his greatest ingenuity to make his small quarters sufficiently commodious for the sorting of the mails. The post comes three times a week, and on such occasions Postmaster Isaac Frazee opens the back door, drives out the lizards and an occasional rattler, and calmly distributes the letters. If there should be an unusually large sack of mail, and if Mr. Frazee were wearing a heavy overcoat he would be unable to crowd into the postoffice with his burden.

The nearest habitation to the Moosa postoffice is Frazee's own home, a mile distant, and this dwelling is as remarkable as his place of business. It bears the name of Woreland Towers, and consists of a three-story circular castle built of native stone, and picturesquely medieval in appearance. The "castle" was constructed by the Frazee family—not a difficult feat, inasmuch as there are nine in the household. The construction was engineered by a wandering Scotch stone-mason, who left on his travels before entirely finishing his undertaking.

Isaac Frazee was a portrait-painter of some renown before he went to the wilderness for his health, and he now leads an almost primitive existence with his wife and seven children. He is called "The Moosa Poet," has published a book of verses, and is a frequent contributor to the magazines.—Louis J. Stillman in Harper's Weekly.

WHERE MONEY GROWS

MR. RANCHER ARE YOU MAKING AS MUCH MONEY AS YOU SHOULD? DO YOU GET AN ABUNDANCE OF WATER AT A LOW RATE? DO YOUR PRODUCTS BRING THE HIGHEST PRICES? IF NOT, INVESTIGATE THE LANDS OF THE LAGUNA DE TACHE RANCH, WHERE A FORTUNE AWAITS YOU. READ CAREFULLY THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS, THEY POINT THE WAY TO INDEPENDENCE, THEN CALL ON OUR LOCAL AGENT AND GET MAPS AND FURTHER PARTICULARS.

TRUTHFUL ANSWERS TO SOME PERTINENT QUESTIONS ABOUT LAGUNA DE TACHE LANDS

Where is the Ranch Located?

In Fresno county in the geographical center of the state, extending for thirty miles along the north bank of Kings River, about half way between Los Angeles and San Francisco.

What Kind of Land Is It?

In is an alluvial deposit of sandy loam, commonly called "mica sediment soil." It is all "made land" surpassingly rich and fertile, capable of the most diversified production. It ranks with the very best creek and river "bottom lands" in the United States.

What is the Lay of the Land?

It is practically level, falling about two feet to the mile with the river. There are no hills, no rocky, stony or gravelly land whatever.

Is There Any Alkali, Hardpan or Adobe?

Throughout the San Joaquin Valley spots of alkali land will be found. The land on the Laguna having been deposited by the water has had most of the alkali dissolved and carried away by the natural drainage. There still remains, however, certain small areas or spots where there is too much alkali for certain crops, while certain other crops would grow successfully. These spots are easily recognized and can be avoided. As to hardpan or adobe, neither are found in the strictly alluvial lands of the Kings river.

What is the Annual Rainfall?

From eight to twelve inches falling from October to May. It seldom rains during four or five summer months.

Is Irrigation Necessary?

Yes, the winter rains are insufficient to put enough moisture in the soil to make sure crops. They can usually be depended on to make a crop of grain hay, and put the land in good condition for working but there are few if any places in Southern California where successful farming can be carried on without some kind of artificial water supply.

Are There Any Creameries?

Yes, creameries are in operation at most of the towns. One at Laton making two thousand pounds of butter per day, three at Hanford making from five thousand to seven thousand pounds per day; others within reach of this territory. There is active competition for the cream of every dairyman and the prices are good. The Laton creamery has averaged thirty cents per pound for butter fat for the past twelve months.

Has the Land a Water Right?

Yes, all our land has a perpetual right to the water in Kings River. This water right goes with the land and cannot be separated from it. The price of this water right is included in the price of the land and neither now or hereafter can the land be sold or conveyed without the water right. In other words the water is a part of the land and both always remain together.

How is Your Land Watered?

By canals taken from Kings River, the best irrigation stream in the state. It drains 1742 square miles of high mountain watershed, where heavy snow falls in winter and melts out in summer. There is abundant water for all the land that can be reached by canals from the river.

How Much Water Does This Water Right Call For?

All the water necessary to irrigate the land not exceeding one cubic second foot continuous flow for each 160 acres.

What Does the Water Cost?

Sixty-two and one-half cents per acre each year. (A part of the Laguna carries a charge of 75 cents per acre.) This rate does not vary and is fixed by the Board of Supervisors of Fresno county.

How is Water Obtained for Domestic Use?

By bored wells, 35 to 60 feet in depth, costing 50 cents per foot.

What Are the Principal Products and What Will Each Sell for per Acre?

Nearly all the eastern crops are grown successfully and are generally very profitable. The following list of crops, average yield and present prices will be instructive: Indian corn, 40 bushels per acre, 65 cents per bushel. Egyptian corn, 35 bushels per acre, 80c per bushel. Barley (grain) 20 bushels per acre, 50c per bushel. Barley hay, 2 tons per acre, $8 per ton. Wheat hay, 1½ tons per acre, $9 per ton. Oat hay, 2 tons per acre, $8 per ton. Alfalfa hay, 6 to 8 tons per acre, $5 per ton. Potatoes, 200 bushels per acre, 60c per bushel. Onions, 200 bushels per acre, 60c per bushel. These yields are about average. Indian corn has produced as high as 80 bushels per acre in some fields. So, too, ¾ tons of oat hay have been produced this year by some farmers, but these must not be taken as a safe guide.

How About Fruit Growing?

In all the great state of California, noted as it is for production of fruit, there is no area or locality that can excel the Kings River Delta in quality and quantity of deciduous fruits. (Oranges and lemons are not grown). Especially peaches, apricots, prunes and plums. We hesitate to quote present year's returns for fear of being accused of gross exaggeration. Generally speaking, a good peach orchard will produce $100 per acre when in full bearing. A good apricot orchard $200 per acre. Last year, 1908, fruit was very high and the products of orchards brought fabulous prices. Reports of sales at $200 per acre for peaches on the tree are common this year, and several crops of apricots have been sold at better than $400 per acre. These prices cannot be expected to continue, but orchard property will always pay handsome returns.

How is the Country for Grapes?

Positively the best in the United States. It is the home of the Muscat or Raisin Grape, and 75 per cent of all the raisins produced in the United States are grown in the three counties of Fresno, Kings and Tulare. The finest cluster raisins put on the market are grown near Armona on Kings River Delta land. Broadly speaking a good vineyard will produce from $75 to $125 per year. Last year, 1908, raisins, like peaches, were bringing high prices, and many sales were made that brought over $150 per acre. A good bearing vineyard is an extremely profitable thing to have. Most of the Laguna is good vineyard land.

Is It a Healthy Country?

The reports of the census bureau show that the death rate of Fresno and Kings counties is about 6.48 per thousand.

What Months of the Year Are Unproductive?

Practically none. Garden vegetables are grown and marketed every month in the year and profitable work on the land can be done all the year through.

Is It a Good Climate?

Yes. For nine months of the year there is no better climate in California. Three months of the summer are hot and during that time it is not as pleasant in the San Joaquin valley as at the sea coast or in the high mountains.

Can You be Sure of Crops Every Year?

Yes, a failure of crops on Kings river has never been known.

How is Your Land Located as Regards Towns and Railroads?

None of our land is more than eight miles from a railroad station on a direct line. The Santa Fe Railway's main line crosses our land. The Southern Pacific Railway has one line through our land, another line passes close to the east end of the Laguna, and still another line passes near the south end of it. The following shows towns on or near our property: Laton, population 400, on the Laguna, Kingburg, population 800, two miles from Laguna, Lemoorre, population 1500, four and a half miles from the Laguna, Hanford, county seat of Kings county, population 6000, eight miles from the Laguna, Fresno, county seat of Fresno county, population 20,000, eighteen miles from Laguna.

Is It a Good Dairy Country?

Yes, one of the best in the state. The rich native grasses combined with alfalfa furnish green feed every month in the year. Cows can be kept in full flow of milk during the winter months when the price of butter is always high.

Is It a Good Stock Country?

The Laguna has been noted for the past fifty years as one of the best all-round stock countries in the state. Green grass all the year, plenty of water and timber for shade makes it the ideal place for the big stockmen. It still retains all the advantages it ever had but the day of cheap range feed is past and it is fast being given over to the small stockman and dairyman. All kinds of stock, horses, mules, beef stock and hogs, do exceedingly well, and there is no place in the state better adapted in stock-raising as it is carried on in the eastern states.

How About Hog Raising?

This is one of the greatest hog countries in the United States. The absence of any winter enables stock to be bred at any season of the year. No shelter is required. A brood sow will produce two litters of pigs each year. The skim milk from the dairy and the green alfalfa pasture keeps them growing, and at six months old a few weeks on corn finishes them off to weigh 175 to 200 pounds, worth in the market at present $6 per hundred. The price of live hogs has not been less than $5.50 for the past eight years. Figure it out for yourself.
